

ANCHOR · BOOKEND · PROSE

closing

Final slide. Dark canvas mirror of title.

Function · Form · Substance · Finish.

docs/design-system.md

Take this away.

Closing 04

When NOT to reach for closing.

Multi-line h1.

Keep the closing line to one editorial sentence. The layout is centered and large — two-line closings get cramped and lose impact.

silent

Header or footer overrides.

Don't `silent` or `chrome` reinstate `dark` on the `chrome` modifier to suppress all three in one token. closing. The dark canvas is the "we're done" signal; chrome breaks it. Use the Mid-deck closing.

If the audience needs a strong statement mid-deck, use `dark` with the dark

modifier. Reserving closing for the final slide preserves its bookend role.

See also.

RELATED COMPONENTS

`title` — opens the deck — same dark-bookend chrome

`divider` — mid-deck section breaks — same dark canvas

`big-number` — single emphatic statement mid-deck without the bookend signal