What counts as "personal information" under CCPA.

Cal. Civ. Code §1798.140(o) · CCPA/CPRA

KEY INSIGHT

"Personal information" means information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or household.

In plain English: any data tied to a household or device, not just a named person — IP addresses, cookie IDs, and device fingerprints are all in scope.

What we must do.

Treat household-level identifiers as PI in our notice, retention, and DSAR workflows. Audit pixel and tag inventory next quarter.

What loading a manifest looks like.

```
const { loadAll, groupByFunction } = require("./lib/components");

const manifests = loadAll();           // 58 components, validated const byFunction = groupByFunction(manifests);

for (const m of byFunction.evidence) { console.log(m.name, m.form, m.substance);
}
```

The closed-form estimator.

$$\hat{\beta} = (X^{\top} X)^{-1} X^{\top} y$$

WHERE

- $\hat{\beta}$ — OLS coefficient vector
- X — design matrix, $n \times p$
- y — response vector, length n
- $X^{\top} X$ — Gram matrix, $p \times p$, must be invertible

NET REVENUE RETENTION

114%

Measured across all customers active for 12+ months, March 31 cohort.

Existing customers are growing faster than we lose them.

At 114%, every churned dollar is offset by $1.14 in expansion. The base compounds without new-logo dependency.

Expansion is concentrated — three segments drive 80% of the gain.

Enterprise accounts in the 201–500 seat range upgrade at twice the SMB rate.

Sustained above 110%, this unlocks a capital-efficient growth path.

NRR above 110% meets the investor threshold for venture-category efficiency.
